Wheat, Old Corn, and Maryland Tobacco,

PURCHASED BY
Oct 24 LAWRASON & FOWLE.

Mr. Editor,

KNOWING that there is a number of the most worthless of society, who make it a business to spread evil reports respecting the solvency of banks in the different parts of the United States, for the purpose of depreciating and purchasing their paper. I feel it is my duty to give a list of the Banks of the District of Columbia, that it may be made known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the said Banks do pay specie for their notes, on demand, and that they are justly entitled to the highest credit and standing, and that they are opposed to a suspension of specie payments, and will be the last in the country that will agree to such a measure. This communication is made to prevent imposition, and to inform all persons who may have the paper of those banks, in any part of the Union, that they may hold it as so much specie. Persons emigrating and travelling north, south or west, would do well by taking the notes of those banks, as they will always find them equal to specie, and often to command a premium of 5 to 10 per cent, for remittances to Baltimore, Philadelphia & New-York. To my numerous acquaintances (trading men,) and the community, I pledge myself for the foregoing.

The following are the banks of this district that pay specie for their notes on demand, viz:
The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown,
Central Bank of Georgetown & Washington,
Union Bank of Georgetown.
Bank of Columbia,
Bank of the Metropolis,
Patriotic Bank of Washington,
Bank of Washington,
Bank of Alexandria,
Union Bank of Alexandria,
Farmers' Bank of Alexandria,
Bank of Potomac,
Branch Bank of the United States at Washington.

I hold myself responsible for the foregoing declaration to the public. Done at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown, this 26th day of May, 1819.

Editors of newspapers throughout the United States, by giving the above a few insertions, will greatly benefit the community. R. R.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1819.

From the Baltimore American, May 31.

Messrs. Editors—The following note to Escavailie's Baltimore Price Current of last Saturday is somewhat descriptive of the consternation the commercial community was thrown into in this city the past week:

"The present No. of the Price Current goes out with less confidence as to quotation of prices, than any beretofore published. The articles marked as usual with the * have been sold during the week, at the prices noted; but in these eventful times, one day knows not what another may bring forth, they should not be confided in, as lasting.

The distresses pervading the whole commercial world, and from which this city has, heretofore been particularly favored, has within the week been felt in its most direful form—the effects have tended to paralyse commerce to a degree unforseen by the best calculators. The pressure of the banks, their contraction of discounts, and finally, the late arrangement of the United States bank, have brought every thing to a pause: several of the oldest and most enterprizing houses have suspended their operations for the time. The effects to be produced are fervently expected to be lastingly beneficial, as shewing forcibly the real value of money, reducing and regulating pari pasu the prices of provisions and labor, and equalizing them with the markets abroad and at home.

The profits drawn on domestic produce of late years have nearly all resulted to the farmers account, whilst the merchant at every risk, no hazard, saddled with enormous expences, has for years been the loser both in exports and returns.

The present state of affairs (the very good prospects of a bountiful harvest being also at hand) it is hoped will so open the eyes of the merchants, as to use a trite phrase, they may see "to count the cost," before embarking too deeply again—We have the example of Europe before us and the consequences—if it were needed."

Markets at Matanzas, 10th inst.—Sugar, Muscovados, $7½ a 8¼—molasses, 8½ a 9 bitts—coffee, 23 a 24—rice, dull, and no sale—beef, 18—pork, 18.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival of the ship Philip, in 42 days from Liverpool, we have been favored with the following commercial letter, and the London Courier of the 12th April, being the only paper we obtained.

Copy of a letter to a mercantile house in this city, dated Liverpool, April 10, 1819.

SIR,

There was very little inquiry for cotton the beginning of the week; on Wednesday however, several dealers and spinners being down, the demand immediately revived, and both bowed and New-Orleans were taken freely, the former at an advance of ¼d per lb upon the prices of last Saturday; all other kinds are also rather better. We have had some demand for Pernams for export at 18½d in bond, and the sales of the week consist of 100 Sea Island, 2s 1d a 2s 4d and 3s for a few fine at St. Simon's; 14 Stained at 13½d; 3600 Bowed, 12½d a 13½d. and a few have reached 13¾d: 1360 Orleans, 12d a 15½d; 1130 Pernams, 18½d a 19½d; 400 Bahia, 16d a 16¾d; 1140 Maranham, 16d a 16¾d; 260 Demerara 14½d a 15½d; 1150 Surat, 7½d a 9¾d; 980 Bengal, 6d a 8d per lb. making in the whole 10,134 bags.

About 800 casks of British plantation sugar have been brought forward by auction this week, of which 500 were sold; good and middling sugars fully supported former prices, but low browns went off 2s a 3s per cwt. below our last quotations. At a public sale of white Bengal sugar last Saturday, 170 bags were disposed of at 84s 3d a 84s 9d and on Thursday 1000 bags of similar description were put up and brought 84s 6d a 92s 9d per cwt. duty paid; 230 bags Isle of France sugar were at the same time offered, and sold at 32s a 35s per cwt in bond. A small parcel of Demerara molasses has been sold at 28s per cwt. We have not heard of any transactions in coffee, and our quotations must be considered merely nominal. Nothing doing in ginger, pimento or cocoa. The only sale we have to notice in dyewoods is a lot of 30 tons Cuba fustic, saved from a wreck, at £8 12s 6d a £8 15s per ton. Very little doing in tallow, but holders are firmer at the annexed prices. No alteration in hides—460 bags Patna rice were offered by auction on Thursday, and bought in, the white at 18s and yellow at 17s per cwt. 350 bags ordinary yellow Bengal were also put up, and sold at 8s 9d a 10s 6d per cwt duty free. There has been no public sale of Carolina: 100 tierces have been sold by private at 25s 6d per cwt in bond. The demand for flaxseed for sowing has in a great measure subsided, and it may now be purchased at our reduced quotations: 60 casks new American clover seed were sold last Saturday by auction at 81s 3d a 96s and one cask very fine at 98s 6d per cwt. 90 casks were also offered on Monday, when only 12 were sold at 90s the remainder withdrawn at that price. We have experienced a further decline in ashes, but there is a considerable inquiry at the annexed rates. 420 barrels inferior Carolina tar have brought at public sale, 12s 6d a 12s 9d per bbl. About 1000 bbls. ordinary turpentine have been sold by private at 11s 3d. 50 bbls. were also sold by auction at 11s 6d per cwt. On Tuesday 1430 bbls new Philadelphia flour were offered by auction and withdrawn at 38s per bbl. 400 bbls. New-York and 300 Virginia were also put up, 150 of the former sold at 32s a a 32s 3d and the whole of the Virginia at 33s 6d per bbl.

We remain, respectfully, Sir,
Your obedient servants,
WM. & JAMES BROWN & Co.

London, April 12.

The London Courier of the 12th of April says—An attempt has been made to poison the emperor of Austria, in his passage through Mantua. This diabolical design, it seems, was meditated by a set of reformers, called the Carbonari, certain united individuals who imagine that Italy can never be well governed till all its various states are united under one sceptre. The political relations of the house of Austria with the north of Italy, are an obstacle in the way of this scheme—and with a degree of folly equalled only by the atrocity of the design, it appears to have been believed that destroying the head of that house would annihilate, also, the matured policy of Europe, which determined the existing condition of Italy. The absurdity of this supposition might excite only our derision, were it not only for the profligacy of intention with which it is united. Assassination seems to be a growing favorite with the professors of liberal doctrines all over the world. It is an expeditious remedy for supositious wrongs, well suited to the motives of those who complain—And we observe, there is always a mischievous spirit of ingenuity at work to contrive palliatives for the abhorrence of mankind at such atrocities. Thus, the Morning Chronicle thinks it "at least as probable, that the conspiracy alluded to has been charged upon the members of this sect, or secret society, as a pretext to justify still harsher measures against them, as that any of them had actually compassed the death of the emperor of Austria.

Dutch and Flanders Mails have arrived this morning, bringing Papers to the 10th inst.—An article from Coblentz speaks of the amazing activity employed upon the fortifications of that city, and adds, if the works continued to be prosecuted in that manner, "Coblentz will be placed, before the winter, in a condition to hold out a seige." Valenciennes, on the other hand, under date of the 5th inst. we learn that the French War Ministers has adopted a plan, approved of by the King to insure the strength and independence of France.—The ancient system of defence it is observed, created by Vauban, has undergone considerable charges by the cession of the important fortress of Landau to Germany, and of Philipville and Marienburgh to the Netherlands.—Luxemburgh belongs to the German Confederation—the frontiers of Prussia touch those of France on the Moscile—while the Netherlands will shortly be surrounded by a line of fortresses, which is erecting "with a rapidity truly astonishing." Under these circumstances, France discovers a necessity for "putting all the fortresses of the first, second, and third rank, in an excellent state of defence."—The cannon, unfit for service is to be re-cast, while the new organization of the army is proceeding with rapidity. If these accounts be correct, to what secret forebodings are we to ascribe these simultaneous and mutual operations of defence? In the midst of profound peace, there is the note and preparation of war. We feel well assured, indeed, that the repose of Europe is in no danger of being disturbed, and because it is in no such danger, we could wish that its appearance were avoided. Certainly, the best security for peace is in the ability to command it—while the reciprocal strength of neighboring Powers, neutralises their respective tendencies to aggression.—Upon this principle, among others of a more positive character, we build our confidence in the permanent tranquility of Europe.

By the Spanish ship Marquis de Romano which arrived at Cadiz on the 22d ult. in 120 days from Lima, advices are received of the safe arrival there of the remainder of the transports which sailed from Cadiz under convoy of the Spanish frigate La Reyna Maria Isabel, viz;—N. S. de Ysiar alias Xaveira, San Fernando, alias Principe de Asturias, N. S. de Atrocha, alias Reinha Maria Isabel, and the Santa Maria.

The Capt. of the Marquis de Romana states, that nothing was known at Lima when he left, of the convoying ship or the missing transport, accounts of whose capture by the Insurgents we published a short time since.

Awful and singular death.—On Sunday last, Mr. W. Chickley, carpenter, of the Spey, attended at Kingston church to be married, and, the religious rites having been completed by his signing the church book, in the vestry room, he was in the act of putting his hand in his pocket to pay the clerk the usual fees, when he was seized with apoplexy, sunk down, and shortly afterwards expired. He was in the 44th year of his age. He had been married twice before.

FROM PARIS PAPERS.

Barcelona, March 11.

The proceedings carried on against the abettors and accomplices of generals Lacey and Milans, were concluded 8 days ago, when several persons received sentence of death. The acts of the procedure have been transmitted to Madrid, to receive the sanction of the king. This formality is prescribed by the laws of the country—the authority of the king is required, whenever there is question as to inflicting the punishment of death. It is thought that the clemency of his majesty will be exercised in favor of these unfortunate individuals.

The marrige of the king, of which so much has been said, is no more than a diplomatic project. There is nothing certain on this subject known, or even contemplated.

A statement in the French papers, which says that Lucien Bonaparte had offered 70 per cent to his creditors, has produced much surprise here. It is formally contradicted in the Diario Romano.

Letters from Rome inform us, that the health of the pope is very good.

HAMBURGH MAIL.

St. Petersburgh, March 20.

The government is fitting out two expeditions for scientific researches in remote seas. Each will consist of two ships—one of them is designed to make discoveries towards the north pole. The commanders are not yet appointed, but such an eagerness to partake in them prevails in the navy, that above sixty officers of the imperial fleet have applied to the minister of marine to be employed in these expeditions.

Extract of a letter from Sierra Leone, dated, January 9, 1819.

"It is with the deepest regret I inform you that notwithstanding the liberality of Great Britain, notwithstanding the faith of treaties solemnly entered into, this coast swarms with slave vessels, dragging thousands of its miserable inhabitants into endless captivity. A few days since the Union of Liverpool arrived here, from to leeward the supercargo of which states, that during his stay in the river Calabar, not less than eight vessels, averaging 500 slaves each, had sailed for the Spanish colonies. We may indeed form an estimate of their numbers from the circumstance of the late colonial brig, lieutenant Hague, commander, having detained and sent into this port in the space of two years twenty-two vessels having upwards of two thousand slaves on board."

LA PLATA.

Artigas, on his side of La Plata, is said to have prohibited the curing of jerked beef and allows no cattle to be killed but for the consumption of the inhabitants—so that but few hides and little tallow can be brought to market. His troops are without clothes or money—and are in want of arms and ammunition—and the population decreases: the Portuguese however can do nothing against him.—Santa Fee has revolted from Buenos Ayres.

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1819.

Mr. SNOWDEN,

It is but seldom that ghosts are permitted to leave "the recesses of condemned spirits," and take a peep at this "uppermost" world. Being on my parole of honor for the month of April last, I visited my old haunts, the fisheries on the Potomac. I was astonished at the wonderful improvement in the country adjacent, and in the apparatus for taking fish, since Captain Posey made a ghost of me. I was particularly pleased with a simple and cheap contrivance called a gill net. I thought at first had this invention been known in my time I might escape Captain Posey's buck shot; but soon found I was probably mistaken. As I stood on the identical spot, just below Mount Vernon, where I was killed, I heard the fish catchers and fish buyers, without an exception, damning every vessel they saw sailing the Potomac, for "a rascally gill-net-man;" and hearing several heavy explosions, and seeing columns of water raised on the river by cannon bullets, I discovered by the laughing and shouting of the fishermen that they were directed at the gill net-men, whom they all wished at the bottom of the channel.—I addressed myself to a grave and venerable looking gentleman, who seemed to be a man of excellent understanding. I said it was a hardship to drive men from their industrious, lawful pursuits—that the river was free for all—that the license of every vessel stated she was permitted to enjoy the benefit of the coasting trade and the fisheries—that if the usual quantity of fish were taken it was immaterial by whom, whether Yankies, Eastern Shore men, or Potomac seine owners—and that unusual quantities of shad were taken, as they were very cheap in the markets.—Notwithstanding all this was so plain, the gentleman was not convinced of my logic, but scowling at me with a mixture of contempt and indignation, he turnd from me, whistling the tune of "Johnny Gladden killed a negro." Fearing I was discovered, and just at that moment hearing another explosion, I thought it prudent to retire and vanish into thin air.

PLAN OF THE BANK OF THE U. STATES.

The corner stone of this edifice to be built of Pennsylvania Marble, on a site in Chesnut, between Fourth and Fifth streets in Philadelphia, was recently laid with much ceremony by the President and Directors of the Institution. The architectural design of Mr. Strickland for the building has been adopted by the bank; and the elevation is represented in the Anelectic Magazine for March last.—The design of the United States bank, is of the Grecian Doric, having eight fluted columns, four feet six inches in diameter, embracing the whole front, taken from the Parthenon, or Temple of Minerva; being divested for the sake of the distribution of space and light, of its flanking columns—and, for the sake of simplicity, of the sculptured metopes, the frieze and the bassa-relievo figures in the tympanum of the pediment.

"The columns rise from a basement 6 feet in elevation, supporting a plain entablature, extending along the sides of a parallelogram 86 by 160 feet, including the body of the building and porticos that project ten feet 6 inches from each of the fronts. The vertical angle of the pediment is 1528, forming an uninterrupted line from end to end of the ridge or apex of the roof.

The ascent to the porticos from the street, is by a flight of six steps, to a terrace or platform, extending 16 feet on each flank, and in front of the edifice.

"It is on this terrace that the building is reared, and from which it derives a great portion of its effect. The gateways on the right and left, open to paved avenues, which extend from Chesnut to Library streets, along each of the flanks, serving to insulate the building from surrounding objects, it being enclosed along these avenues by a return of the iron railing exhibited in the front elevation.

"The door of entrance opens into a spacious vestibule, leading to the banking room, which is placed immediately in the centre of the building. On the right and left of the vestibule is the loan office and transfer office, which are entirely distinct from the rooms appropriated to banking purposes. The banking room in plan is a spacious parallelogram of 45 by 80 containing 12 polished marble pillars, of the Ionic order, copied from the temple of Minerva Polias, at Priene:—these pillars are placed at a distance of eight feet from the sides of the room, and support a vaulted pannelled ceiling across its shortest diameter. The desks and counters range throughout the intercolumnations, forming a capacious area in the centre and along their sides, for the transaction of business. The president's and cashier's rooms on the north, together with the vaults, and private stair cases on the south, are adjacent to the sides of the banking room, and can only be approached by doors of communication from this room. The stockholders', directors' and committee rooms are situated on the southern front of the building, having passages of communication with each other, and with the banking room. It is to be remarked that in the plan all the rooms are bounded by parallel walls, at right angles from the fronts and flanks; that these rooms are lighted exclusively from the flanks of the building, which are a distance of 33½ feet from the boundary lines of the lot, affording ample space for the circulation of light and air in every direction."

Charleston, May 22.

We are informed that the application of Capt. Blackler, of His B. M. ship Lee, to our government, for the British seamen who joined the crew of the piratical ship Louisa, as heretofore stated, has been unsuccessful—Their surrender was refused probably on the ground that they are equally as amenable to the laws of the United States as to those of Great Britain. They will be tried at a special session of the Circuit Court, to be holden in this city on the first day of June next.

The Lee will sail for England this day or to-morrow.

Indeed, their views embrace the investigation of all the productions of the mineral kingdom, considering them all as either curious in science, or useful in art.

HAIL STORM.

The Milledgeville (Ga) Journal of the 18th inst. states, that on Monday evening, the 10th, about five o'clock, that town was visited by the severest hail storm, ever witnessed by the oldest inhabitants. It continued with much fury for about 15 minutes. The cloud coursed from N. W. to S. E. and so great was its force, that every house in town, with a window on the north side, felt its effects. Some of the stones that fell, it is said, were nearly six inches in circumference. Many of the planters in the vicinity of the town have lost almost their whole crop of small grain.

Bulletin.

To all whom it may concern these PRESENTS come greeting:

WHEREAS one of the brokers of George town, has, in the plenitude of assumption, issued a kind of mock manifesto, designating by his dictum, those banks in the District of Columbia which pay specie for their notes; and, like another Atlas, has taken on his shoulders the burden of their responsibility.

And whereas the aforesaid personage has, without conferring with the banks in Alexandria, "considered it his duty" to pronounce on them his opinion: and in so doing has either wilfully or ignorantly excluded the Mechanics' Bank from his list of "banks paying specie"

Now these are to certify, (the aforesaid Broker's proclamation notwithstanding,) that, in addition to the Alexandria, Potomac, Farmers' and Union Banks, (which have, under the most severe pressure from the brokers on the other side, invariably and constantly retired their notes by drafts on the NORTH, or with specie) that the Mechanics' Bank has resumed specie payment.

"We hold ourselves responsible for the above declaration to the public.

Done and perfected at our office, corner of Prince and Fairfax streets, this second day of June, Anno Domini 1819, and in the first era of our vocation.

HENDERSON & FITZHUGH,
Brokers.

Lectures

ON THE RUNNING HAND,

Price 3 dollars for seven lectures, each two hours at the Writing Room, next door to the Marshall's Office, Washington street.

IMMEDIATELY after a former advertisement, I engaged a sufficient number of scholars, and have since refused the applications of many, because they applied too late to go through the whole course of writing on the different Hands. But to meet the wishes of many, I propose to give lectures on the Running Hand only during the remaining ten days that my engagements elsewhere permit me to continue in this place. And notwithstanding, the statement may appear extravagant and even impossible to many who know nothing about it, yet is a fact that not only in 12 or 14 hours, but even in 4 hours, I will produce a change in a person's writing from a cramped, slow, slovenly hand to an easy, free, neat running hand, entirely different from the former one. Those who please may try the experiment. Besides acquiring the running hand perfectly and permanently, each gentleman will be taught the true method of making, holding the pen, sitting at the writing desk, &c. Specimens of the running hand acquired in a few hours may be seen at the writing room.

ALSO FOR SALE, AS ABOVE,

Mills at Auction.

THE subscriber, who is the owner of a MANUFACTURING MILL, and a

Durable Geared Saw Mill,

On Broad Run, Prince William County, wishes to sell, and intends offering them for sale by public auction, to the highest bidder, on the first day of July next.—Persons desirous of owning this kind of property, are particularly invited to attend the sale, as the property will be most positively sold on that day, and as an opportunity of purchasing Mills so truly desirable, will not again occur.—To render the purchase still more desirable, there will be attached to these mills,

50 Acres of excellent Land,

One half of which will be in wood, or the whole, if required by the purchaser. In point of locality, no mills can be better situated, within half a mile of the road leading to the Thoroughfare Gap of the mountain, which is the route established by Act of Assembly as a Turnpike, to which there is the most ready access; and being surrounded by a country well timbered, and occupied by excellent Farmers, who cultivate extensively. Both these mills are in complete order for work, having lately undergone thorough repairs. In the Grist Mill, there are two pair of large Burrs and a pair of Stones for the Corn custom, which are turned by a force of water sufficient for the operation of an additional pair of Burrs, for which the house is abundantly commodious.

The terms of sale, one third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance to be divided into two equal payments of one and two years, without interest, and possession to be given on the first day of August, which will be immediately preceding the commencement of the manufacturing season.

The prospect for a crop of wheat the present season in this neighborhood, and for a considerable extent upwards is very flattering, and to a person who could apply his funds to such an object, it is confidently believed that no pursuit whatever would be attended with greater profit.—The sale will take place on the premises, well known in the neighborhood by the name of the Cloverland Mills, about half a mile from the subscriber's place of residence. Round Hill for Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust from Daniel McPherson and wife to me, under date of the 30th of May, 1816, and for the purposes therein prescribed, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises on FRIDAY, the 4th of JUNE next, a tract of land in the county of Fairfax, known by the name of lying on the stage or Colchester road, distant about 6 miles from Alexandria, and containing 148¾ acres, more or less:—reserving, however, to George Triplett his right to one moiety of the dwelling house and yard. This land has been very considerably improved by judicious cultivation, and there are now growing crops of small grain upon it.

Also, one other tract, being an equal undivided moiety of a tract of land in the said county, contiguous to the foregoing, and supposed to contain 25 acres 2 poles.

The terms of sale will be made known at the time and place of sale.

This valuable property, and elegant stand for the tanning business, will be sold, subject to the claim of Mordecai Miller for $500, with what interest shall be due thereon, unless otherwise declared on the day of sale. Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth round about jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18
